Doug McWhorter volunteers for “Wills for Heros”

Doug McWhorter recently participated in the “Wills for Heroes” program conducted by the Alabama Bar Association as a public service. The Wills for Heroes project offers first responders free basic estate planning services. The project was created to provide the legal community with a way to show its appreciation for the efforts and sacrifices of these brave men and women. As a part of this project, Doug drafted Wills for the firemen at the North Shelby County Fire Station and had the privilege of working with the first responders there. The project is managed by the Alabama State Bar Volunteer Lawyers Program. You can learn more about the program by clicking here.

Judy Shepura presented at Elder Law seminar

Judy Shepura recently spoke at the Issues in Elder Law seminar sponsored by the University of Alabama School of Law and the Elder Law Section of the Alabama Stare Bar. Mrs. Shepura’s topic was an analysis of the Power of Attorney act passed in 2012 and the difference it has made.
